Re: White Springs Agricultural Chemicals, Inc. d/b/a PCS Phosphate – White Springs vs. Greenwich Insurance Company
Hamilton County Case No. 2013-CA-000247

Dear Sir/Madam:

Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552, Freedom of Information Act, Article I, section 24 of the Florida Constitution, and chapter 119, Florida Statutes, please accept this as our request for copies of the following public records:

Any and all records maintained by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, Region 4 (hereinafter “EPA”), regarding any and all actions taken by White Springs Agricultural Chemicals, Inc. d/b/a PCS Phosphate – White Springs (“White Springs”) before, during, and after Tropical Storm Debby<sup>1</sup>, including, but not limited to, any and all documents, correspondence and communications between PCS Phosphate – White Springs Facility located at 15843 SE 78th Street, White Springs, Florida 32096 and the EPA regarding any and all actions taken by White Springs before, during, and after Tropical Storm Debby.

Should you deny our request, or any part of the request, please state in writing the basis for the denial, including the exact statutory citation authorizing the denial as required by section 119.07(1)(d), Florida Statutes.

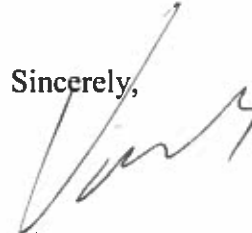

We would like to receive the requested records as soon as possible. Accordingly, please advise us of the statutorily prescribed fees associated with this request and we will promptly make arrangements for payment of the fees.

<sup>1</sup> Tropical Storm Debby is believed to have been in the White Springs area from roughly June 23, 2012 to June 27, 2012.
